

JC Gardner is an international, award-winning author, speaker, poet, writing coach, and ghostwriter. Helping authors bring their projects to life through her coaching program is a blessing and a gift. She has written and co-authored numerous books, along with contributing to many publications. Her latest novel, “Heated,” is an urban dramedy about a single mother’s plight to do better despite her negative circumstances. It is the recipient of an IPPY Award, a Distinguished Author’s Guild Award, and an Amazon bestseller. JC is also a contributor and Senior Editor for Church Girl CEO Magazine.

JC was a closet writer for many years due to a devastating blow in her past that silenced her creativity and almost derailed her God-given talent of being an entertainer and storyteller through the written word. After a phenomenal, spiritual breakthrough, it was clear that what God has placed in your heart, no one can take away. She is a natural-born writer; it is infused in her D.N.A. and believes everyone’s D.N.A. makes them Deliberately Not Average! After years of living in a cloud of self-doubt and fear of rejection, she uses her platform as a speaker to transform and empower women to reclaim their destiny using real-life examples, practical solutions, faith, and humor.

By day, JC is a National Advisor at an international nonprofit. By candlelight, she writes!

She has been married for over 35 years and has two successful grown children.
